1 Fiscal Implications: None

2 Department Testimony: The department opposes this resolution.

- 4 Hawaii Administrative Rules (HAR) Chapter 11-50, Food Safety Code was adopted on
- 5 September 1, 2017 and includes all provisions requested in this resolution. The department has
- 6 worked with the Hawaii Restaurant Association and many other industry food groups in the
- 7 adoption of HAR Chapter 11-50.

- 9 The Conference for Food Protection is a non-governmental organization composed of
- 10 representatives from the food industry, academia, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
- 11 (CDC), the U.S. Food and Drug Administration's (FDA) Center for Food Safety and Applied
- 12 Nutrition (CFSAN), as well as state and federal regulators that meet biennially to address current
- food science and technology and incorporates that information in what is known as the U.S.
- Public Health Service FDA Model Food Code (Food Code). HAR 11-50 makes Hawaii one of
- the nation's food safety leaders in adopting the 2013 FDA Model Food Code nearly verbatim
- which is one of the most current science-based food regulatory rules in the nation. The
- 17 regulations in most states are still based on the 2005 or 2009 version of the FDA Model Food
- 18 Code.

- 1 In addition to the adoption of the 2013 FDA Model Food Code, the department has also 2 introduced a highly visible placarding program and a public web-site to access all inspections of food establishments. 3 4 In FY18 the Food Safety program conducted over 16,000 routine inspections which revealed 5 6 over 12,000 food safety violations. The program achieved a remarkable 99.99% voluntary 7 compliance in correcting these violations without litigating the solution through permit 8 suspensions and/or fines, saving taxpayers costly and counter-productive court costs, but more importantly, it has ensured public health and safety by assuring proper food handling practices 9
- 12 Thank you for the opportunity to testify on this measure.

are being conducted in all food establishments.

To Whom It May Concern,

Re: SR82

The Hawaii Restaurant Association is very interested in working with the Department of Health to establish industry standards that will address certain unsanitary food handling procedures in food handling establishments and assist in the adoption of our industry rules.

Mahalo,

Sheryl Matsuoka Executive Director
